

The World Caribbean Golf Challenge Final took place in the Dominican Republic from Dezember 10th to 17th, 2007.

The tournament with the National Final in the Domencian Republic, was established in Italy. In the last two years it has been spreading all over the World.

Absolute Golf Italy, founder of the World Caribbean Golf Challenge tournaments and owner of the brand, organized both the Italian and the World Final with golfers from Germany, USA, Brazil, Dominican Republic, Paraguay, Slovenja and Croatia.

A week full of relax and sun playing golf, all the guests stayed at Catalonia Gran Dominicus Resort in Bayahibe, La Romana. They arrived with their companions on 10th and 11th of December and met the Absolute Golf staff.

All the finalists have played the practice round on the famous Teeth of the Dog course, one of the best courses in the world.

The Final was on Thursday December 13th, with shot gun starting time at 12.30; the famous holes next to the sea of the Teeth of the Dog, were very hard to play due to strong breeze, a danger even for the experienced players!!! When the last four arrived at the club house, Mr Darrel Teubner, the Casa de Campo golfer referee, was doing the results. The bus service took all the golfers to the Resort and before the dinner the final results were put up at the Absolute Golf desk.

The day after, all players were invited to the Golf Invitational at La Estancia Golf Resort, a new residential project at La Romana with a golf course, the last "child" of Pete Dye, among the villas and the Altos de Chavon river. An exclusive opportunity to play a new golf corse for the first time, the course will be inaugurated at the beginnig of March 2008.

La Estancia Golf Resort, in fact, will be the sponsor of the tournament for the next three years and the next World Final will take place at its course.

Mr Tiberio Avanzino, owner of La Estancia and partner of the World Caribbean Golf Challenge in the Domincan Republic welcomes the guests at the golf office and presented the project to them.

On Friday night the prize-giving ceremony and the gala dinner took place, in presence of Mr Anacleto Martin, President of Absolute Golf Italy, Tiberio Avanzini for La Estancia, Giuseppe Calderone licensee for USA and all international golf teams that participated at the World Final.

Derek Arzoomanian from USA won La Estancia Golf Invitational Tournament, together with Domenico Ribotta and Marco Antonio Quattrone from Italy, the best Lady was Silke Bachelin from Germany.
